

INDEX TO VOL. XLIV.

- Abbots, persecution of, under Henry VIII., 465.
Abercius, 147.
Accusations of Protestants against Catholics of opposing science, 379.
Africa, recent explorations, by Livingstone, 156—difficulty of exploration, ib.—climate, 153—ignorance about Africa, ibid.—Dutch inhabitants of, 160.
Ambrose, St., 149.
Aphides, observations on, 386.
Ascension, the emblems of, in the catacombs, 138.
Audley, 285.
Austria, disputes of the Pope with, 251.
Angus, Earl of, his divorce, 472.
Avignon, papal court at, 51-52—reasons for the Pope's removing there, 53, 54.
Bacon, Nicholas, 289.
Baillie, Dr., extracts from his travels, 163.
Baptism, necessity of, 124—its administration to unborn infants, 126.
Barth Dr., in Africa, 167.
Beguines, their origin and rules, 65.
Bible, authorized Protestant version of the, 183—incorrect translation, 184—different significations of words used, 189—fertility of the Greek language in which it was written, 192—faults of punctuation, 134.
Bill, Indian, discussion on, 370.
Bohringer, quotations from, 88.
Boniface, Pope, VIII., 50—his death, 51.
Bonn-r, 287.
Books, notices of, 251, 526.
Bouchier, life of, 252, 283.
Bribery during Walpole's administration, 352.
Buildings, gothic, discomforts of, 217-218.
Burnet, Bishop of Wells, 279.
Byag, Admiral, death of, 354—alleged reasons for his execution, 354, 355.
Calvinists, German, their offer to make Henry Emperor, 24.
Campaigna, Roman, 297.
Carteret, Lord, his dismissal from the council, 385.
Catacombs of Rome, 170.
Chatham, Lord, 365.
China, persecution of priests in, 503—their banishment, 504—their recall, 506—success, 507.
Chinese ceremonies, controversy on the, 510-524—decision at Rome respecting them, 516—nature of the ceremonies, 518—circumstances by which the missionaries were influenced, 521—prohibitory decree of Clement XI., 521—its effects, 524.
Cholera, exertions of the Pope, during the, 157.
Chalmers, Sir Roger, 288.
Christians, early, their zeal, 130.
Churchill Dr., his advocacy of craniotomy, 107, 110, 112, 113.
Church, Catholics' obedience to the, 375.
Churches in Rome, 295.
Clement XI., his decree on the Chinese ceremonies, 521.
Commons, house of, origin of the, 342.
Convent, Armenian, in Venice, 292.
Converts, state of, 214—Influence of the Church on, 215.
Craniotomy, 105, 110—seldom practised in Catholic countries, 115, 116.
Creation Haydn's, 403.
Crotchets and crotchettiness, 200—Crotchets, signification of the word, 202, 203, 204—difference between crotchets and crotchettiness, 211.
Dull, an African tribe, 165, 166.
Dutch, the, in Africa, 160.
Duplessis Mornay, his character and exertions, 16, 17, 27.
Earth, period of its existence, 390.
Elias, 140.
England, Froude's history of, 445.
Explorations by Maillet and others, 161.
Families, great, now existing as at the end of the Revolution, 348.
Fitzwilliam, Lord, his history, 349.
Fl. gelants, 68.
Florence, Cascine at, 293.
Forest, Prior of the Observants Convent, his execution for treason, 467.
Foss, his Judges of England, 269.
France, union between her and Turkey, 7-8.
Franciscana, heresy among the, 62, 63.
Francis of Sales, St., his admiration of Henry IV., 4.
Francis 1st, his union with Soliman against Charles 5th, 7.
Friends of God, their doctrine, 39, 40.
Froude's accusations against the Pope, of sanctioning assassination, 471.
Froude's History of England, 445—reasons he assigns for Henry's divorce, 445, 446—conduct he attributes to the Pope, 452—alleges a spirit of persecution in Catholics, 454.

INDEX TO VOL. XLIV.

- Abbots, persecution of, under Henry VIII., 465.
Abercius, 147.
Accusations of Protestants against Catholics of opposing science, 379.
Africa, recent explorations, by Livingstone, 156—difficulty of exploration, ib.—climate, 153—ignorance about Africa, ibid.—Dutch inhabitants of, 160.
Ambrose, St., 149.
Aphides, observations on, 386.
Ascension, the emblems of, in the catacombs, 138.
Audley, 285.
Austria, disputes of the Pope with, 251.
Angus, Earl of, his divorce, 472.
Avignon, papal court at, 51-52—reasons for the Pope's removing there, 53, 54.
Bacon, Nicholas, 289.
Baillie, Dr., extracts from his travels, 163.
Baptism, necessity of, 124—its administration to unborn infants, 126.
Barth Dr., in Africa, 167.
Beguines, their origin and rules, 65.
Bible, authorized Protestant version of the, 183—incorrect translation, 184—different significations of words used, 189—fertility of the Greek language in which it was written, 192—faults of punctuation, 134.
Bill, Indian, discussion on, 370.
Bohringer, quotations from, 88.
Boniface, Pope, VIII., 50—his death, 51.
Bonn-r, 287.
Books, notices of, 251, 526.
Bouchier, life of, 252, 283.
Bribery during Walpole's administration, 352.
Buildings, gothic, discomforts of, 217-218.
Burnet, Bishop of Wells, 279.
Byag, Admiral, death of, 354—alleged reasons for his execution, 354, 355.
Calvinists, German, their offer to make Henry Emperor, 24.
Campaigna, Roman, 297.
Carteret, Lord, his dismissal from the council, 385.
Catacombs of Rome, 170.
Chatham, Lord, 365.
China, persecution of priests in, 503—their banishment, 504—their recall, 506—success, 507.
Chinese ceremonies, controversy on the, 510-524—decision at Rome respecting them, 516—nature of the ceremonies, 518—circumstances by which the missionaries were influenced, 521—prohibitory decree of Clement XI., 521—its effects, 524.
Cholera, exertions of the Pope, during the, 157.
Chalmers, Sir Roger, 288.
Christians, early, their zeal, 130.
Churchill Dr., his advocacy of craniotomy, 107, 110, 112, 113.
Church, Catholics' obedience to the, 375.
Churches in Rome, 295.
Clement XI., his decree on the Chinese ceremonies, 521.
Commons, house of, origin of the, 342.
Convent, Armenian, in Venice, 292.
Converts, state of, 214—Influence of the Church on, 215.
Craniotomy, 105, 110—seldom practised in Catholic countries, 115, 116.
Creation Haydn's, 403.
Crotchets and crotchettiness, 200—Crotchets, signification of the word, 202, 203, 204—difference between crotchets and crotchettiness, 211.
Dull, an African tribe, 165, 166.
Dutch, the, in Africa, 160.
Duplessis Mornay, his character and exertions, 16, 17, 27.
Earth, period of its existence, 390.
Elias, 140.
England, Froude's history of, 445.
Explorations by Maillet and others, 161.
Families, great, now existing as at the end of the Revolution, 348.
Fitzwilliam, Lord, his history, 349.
Fl. gelants, 68.
Florence, Cascine at, 293.
Forest, Prior of the Observants Convent, his execution for treason, 467.
Foss, his Judges of England, 269.
France, union between her and Turkey, 7-8.
Franciscana, heresy among the, 62, 63.
Francis of Sales, St., his admiration of Henry IV., 4.
Francis 1st, his union with Soliman against Charles 5th, 7.
Friends of God, their doctrine, 39, 40.
Froude's accusations against the Pope, of sanctioning assassination, 471.
Froude's History of England, 445—reasons he assigns for Henry's divorce, 445, 446—conduct he attributes to the Pope, 452—alleges a spirit of persecution in Catholics, 454.

- Gaeta*, the Pope's flight to, 254.
Gardiner, 286.
Geology and Protestantism, 375.
Giffard, Bishop of Winchester, 273.
Gospel according to St. John, revised by five clergymen, 181.
Goths, a word to the, 200 extracts from, 201, 202.
Handel's Messiah, 395.
Haydn's Creation, 403.
Henry 8th., reasons for his divorce, 445—indignation of the people against him, 450.
Henry 4th., state of politics at the commencement of his reign, 2, 3—political motives for his change of religion, 3—his letter to his ambassador, 8.—his religious views, 10—his death, 30—designs imputed to him, 23—his threats against the Turks, 25.
Heresy, Manichean, spread of, 58, 59.
Heresies in the 14th century, 67, 68.
Hilford's six months in Italy, 290.
Hobbes, abbot of Woburn, his death, 462.
Howard Catherine, her downfall, 476.
Hunt, slave, in Africa, 167, 170.
Hue, Pere, his History of Christianity in China, 501—his account of the controversy on the Chinese ceremonies, 510-524.
Ignatius, letters of Saint, 412—discovery of, 413 doubts of their being genuine, ib.—attempts of Protestants to disprove the doctrine of the Real Presence from his letters, 414, 415—evidence of Eusebius, Bishop of Cesarea, 423, 424—of Theodoret, 425—of St. Jerome, ib.—of St. Ephrem, ib.—of St. Polycary, 426—use of conjunctive particles, 428, 429.
Immortality, the dogma of, 306.
India Bill, discussion on, 370.
Infants unborn, the practice of destroying them unchristian, 102, 103—the signs of death often fallacious, 104—importance of bringing them to baptism, 107—their destruction in no case permissible, 110—how often it really takes place, 114—Cæsarian operation, 115—practice of leaving them in the dead mother's womb, 121—earliest period of their viability, 122—when the soul in them is united to the body, 123—do not die with the mother, 127.
Institutions, human, as precursors of Divine, 328, 329.
Inscriptions, early Christian, 146.
Italy, six months in, 290—charity, public, 294.
John XXII., quarrel between him and Louis of Bavaria, 60—his refusal to confirm Louis, 61.
 —(St.) of the Cross, quotations from, 86.
Judges of England, 269.
Knowledge, scientific, danger to religion in defective, 379, 380, 383.
Labour, premature, in childbirth, 119—in what cases lawful, ib.
Letter of Henry IV. to his ambassador, 8.
Lingard's, Doctor, new version of the Four Gospels, 181.
Livingstone, Dr., recent African exploration, 158—account of himself, 172—attacked by the Boors under Pretorius, 173—encounter with a lion, 174—Lake Ngami, 175—Tsetse, the, account of, 176—Ambaca, district of, 177—Tampian, bite of the, ib.
Louis of Bavaria, his opposition to the Pope, 61.
Luther, his remarks on the war against the Turks, 5, 6—his teaching, 13.
Lutheranism, its opposition to Calvinism, 12—its decline, 13.
Mai, Cardinal, account of, 237—his writings, 239.
Marriage, proposed between Henry's daughter and an Infant of Spain, 17.
Maguire's work on Rome, 442.
Mazzini, 249, 255.
Messiah, the, by G. F. Handel, 395—rapidity of its composition, 398—its first appearance, 399.
Mexzo'anti, Cardinal, 235—his death, 236.
Midwifery, its practitioners, 100—instructed to destroy unborn children, 106—Cæsarian operation advocated, 115—the inducing of premature labour, 118.
Milman, Dr., his accusations against Tauler, 37.
Miller's testimony of the Rocks, 375.
Miracles, supposed natural causes of, 388.
More, life of, 284.
Morality, respecting unborn children, objectionable, 102, 106, 108, 114.
Moses, allusions to him in the Catacombs, 131.
Mosaic of St. Sabina, 137.
Murder of Cardinal Rossini, 252.
Murchison, Dr Roderick, 161.
Mysticism, its presence in all ages, 76.
Newman, Dr., his new version of the Scriptures, 199.
Nicholas of Bale, 37.
Nobles, tyranny of, 338, 344.
North, Earl of, administration of, 367.
Notices of books, 261, 528.
Palma, Monsignor, death of, 253.
Pallium, true signification of the, 143.
Paulet, Marquis of Winchester, 288.
Peter, St., as represented in the Catacombs, 132, 133—the recognition of his mission, 135 his emblems, 139—evidences of his primacy, 130—receiving the keys, 139—guiding the vessel, 145—his position with regard to St. Paul, 153.
Pius VII., interview with, 227.
 —IX., personal description of, 244—early life, 245—made Archbishop of Spoleto, 246—made Pope, 248—his dispute with Austria, 251.
Place of honour, difference between the Greeks and Latins, 156.
Planets, probability of their being inhabited, 385.
Pitt, Mr., his administration, 357—his efforts to bring about war with Spain, 358.
Plan for the division of Europe, 22.
Prison at Pentonville, number of Catholics there, 488—disadvantages of the Catholics, ib.—influence of priests upon the prisoners, 493—changes necessary in prison discipline, 495—objections answered, 498.
Popes, four last, 219.
 —place of their interment, 157.
Porson, M. A., history of Henry IV., 1—his Gallicanism, marked by dislike of the Holy See, ib.—exclusive use of French documents, ibid.
Power, royal, renewed attempts for the subversion of, 344-45.
 —love of, its influence on politics, 368.
Portuguese settlements, effect produced by the suppression of religious orders, 178.
Priests, as compared with the Protestant clergy, 296.

- Principles*, Manichean, spread of, 58, 59.
Protestantism in favour with the Turks, 6—its progress in Europe, 11—cause of its success, 12—its decline, 11, 13.
Prussia, position of Catholics in, 2, 4, 1.
Ranulph, Flambar, 271.
Ravallac, 30.
Reformation, its effect on the position of the Turks in Europe, 5.
Rocks, testimony of the, or Geology in its bearings on the two theologies, natural and revealed, by Miller, 375.
Rome, disturbed state of, 54, 55.
 — her past and present position, 220—government of, 222—exercise of charity, 223, 224.
Rossi, murder of Cardinal, 252.
Salisbury, Roger, Bishop of, 274.
Schall, Father, his sufferings in China, 503.
Schmidt's, Professor, remarks on the "Friends of God," 38.
Science opposed to Protestantism, 376—as found in the Holy Scriptures, 377.
Schrieffer, powerlessness of the, 341.
Slave hunt in Africa, 167, 170.
Smith's Thorndale, 299.
Soul the, earliest period of its union with the body, 123—its spiritual condition, 124.
Soldiers, German, and their equipment, 18, 19—their success, 20.
Struggles, English party, 337.
Specklin's notices of Tauler, 45.
Spenser, Earl of Sunderland, 351—his intrigues for power, 1b.
Stratford, Bishop of Winchester, 279.
State of religious feeling in the 14th century, 51.
States, Papal, state of parties in the, 56, 57—societies, secret, 57.
Sully, his plans and influence, 26, 27.
Surrey, Earl of, his execution, 481.
Suso, his writings, 73—quotations from his writings, 89, 97—his character, 98.
Supremacy of the Church of St. Peter, 220.
Tablet, 485—correspondence between the visiting Priest of Pentonville and the Secretary of State, 485, 487, 488.
Tampian, bite of the, 177.
Tauler, 31—enthusiasm for him, 1b.—translations of his works, 32—his conversion, 36—accusations of Dr. Milman against him, 37—extracts from his sermon, 41, 78—charge against him of disaffection to the Church, 42—his publications, 47—his exhortations, 47, 48—his reappearance, 68—his sermons, 70, 71—extract from his sermons, 91.
Thomas, St. a Boeket, 275.
Thorndale, or the conflict of opinion, 299.
Threats of Henry against the Turks, 25.
Tesse, account of the, by Dr. Livingstone, 176.
Turks, their love of Protestantism, 6.
Union, protestant, formed by Henry IV., 23.
Veils, remarks on as a headdress, as compared with bonnets, 293.
Verbiest, Father, defends the persecuted priests in China, 503—declares the Chinese calendar inaccurate, 505—result, 506—his efforts for restoration of banished priests, 1b.—his influence with the emperor, 507.
Werner of Urslingen, 18.
Whigs and Tories, difference between, 369.
Will, free of man, 325.
William of Wykeham, 281.
Winkworth, Miss, 32.
Wiseman's Cardinal, four last Popes, 219.
Wriothesley, 288.

